Prudent Man Advisors, Inc. Welcomes New Chief Investment Officer

Chicago – October 17, 2013 – Prudent Man Advisors, Inc., a leading provider of investment management services to local government investment pools, is pleased to welcome John M. Huber as its new Chief Investment Officer (CIO).

Mr. Huber is a proven investment leader with over 20 years of experience managing institutional fixed income portfolios. As Chief Investment Officer for Prudent Man Advisors, Inc., he will lead the firm's asset management business and investment process. He will also be responsible for portfolio management and will direct the advisor's research and trading efforts. Jim Davis, CEO of Prudent Man Advisors, Inc. states, "John is widely regarded as a top investment professional in our industry. The wealth of industry knowledge and experience that he brings to the table is a great benefit to our investment advisory clients and investment advisory business. We are all extremely pleased to have John join our team."

Prior to joining Prudent Man Advisors, Inc. Mr. Huber served as Chief Investment Officer and Senior Managing Director for RBC Global Asset Management U.S., a subsidiary of the Royal Bank of Canada. In Mr. Huber's former position, he was responsible for RBC's fixed income investment results and fixed income investment strategy. He led the firm's investment professional team and their investment process. As a member of the executive team, he worked closely with colleagues to execute the firm's business plan.

Prior to joining RBC GAM U.S. in late 2004, Mr. Huber spent the previous decade as a founding Principal and Portfolio Manager for Galliard Asset Management, a wholly owned subsidiary of Wells Fargo Corporation, advising public, corporate and non-profit organizations on fixed income solutions.

Mr. Huber earned an MBA in Finance from the Carlson School of Management at the University of Minnesota and received his Bachelor of Arts from the University of Iowa. He is a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) charter holder and a member of the CFA Society of Minnesota.
