PMA Financial Network, LLC Welcomes Brady Brucato, as Coordinator, Sales and Relationship Management

PMA, a premier full-service provider of financial and advisory services to local governments, is pleased to announce that Brady Brucato, has joined the New York Liquid Asset Fund (NYLAF) team as Coordinator, Sales and Relationship Management.

Brady brings a wealth of experience and expertise to PMA that will undoubtedly enhance our capabilities and strengthen our commitment to delivering quality financial solutions to the Participants of NYLAF. Prior to joining PMA, Brady served as a Senior Manager at Frontline Education where she led the company's Partner Program, working collaboratively with numerous K-12 state associations across the nation to build solutions for school entities. Additionally, during her time at Frontline Education, the Association of School Business Officials New York (ASBO NY) and Questar III BOCES, she gained invaluable experience working with various schools across the state of New York.

"We are thrilled to welcome Brady to our team," said Rajesh Chainani, PMA Senior Vice President, Head of Business Development. "With her exceptional skills and dedication, she will play a pivotal role in driving the NYLAF mission forward, contributing to the success of our clients and our organization as a whole," he added.

"I am incredibly excited to join the PMA family and contribute to the ongoing success and growth of the company," said Brady Brucato. "I am eager to return to my roots in New York, collaborating with my colleagues to provide stellar financial support to school districts across the state."

We are excited to have Brady join the PMA/NYLAF teams!
