

PMA Financial Network, LLC Welcomes Travis Zander, CPA, as Coordinator, Sales and Relationship Management

PMA, a premier full-service provider of financial and advisory services to local governments, is pleased to announce that Travis Zander, CPA has joined the team as Coordinator, Sales and Relationship Management. Travis will assist in growing PMA by bringing the firm's comprehensive suite of financial products and service programs to the state of Texas, with a particular focus on the Texas school district market.

Prior to joining PMA, Travis served as a Senior Analytics Advisor – Team Lead at Frontline Education where he leveraged his expertise to provide innovative solutions for school districts, allowing them to focus on their core mission of educating children.

Travis spent seven years in various roles within schools, including Internal Audit CFO, and Director of Budget for Austin ISD, managing a substantial budget of $1.6 billion. He began his career as an external auditor specializing in governmental auditing in Arizona.

“We are thrilled to welcome Travis to the PMA team and to expand our footprint into Texas,” said Michele Wiberg, Chief Sales and Marketing Officer. “We are confident that our financial services platform, coupled with Travis’ expertise in Texas school finance, will bring a unique set of financial solutions to Texas school districts,” she added.

“I am eager to join PMA at this exciting time in their history and to have the opportunity to contribute to an organization that I have seen firsthand exemplifies excellence and integrity,” said Zander. “I look forward to continuing PMA’s mission of providing financial strategies for stronger communities, with a particular focus on new partnerships.”

Travis will reside in Texas. We are excited to have him join the PMA team!
